

GAMIDA CELL LTD.
NOMINATING AND GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER

The board of directors (the “Board”) of Gamida Cell Ltd. (the “Company”) has constituted and established a nominating and governance committee (the “Committee”) with the authority, responsibility and duties as described in this Nominating and Governance Committee Charter (this “Charter”).

Purpose

The purpose of the Committee is to:

- (a) identify, review and evaluate candidates to serve as members of the Board, recommend to the Board nominees for election as directors of the Company, and review and evaluate incumbent members of the Board;
- (b) make recommendations to the Board regarding corporate governance guidelines and matters; and
- (c) oversee all aspects of the Company’s corporate governance functions and ethical conduct.

Membership

The Committee shall be comprised of at least two (2) members of the Board. The Board shall appoint the Committee members annually and each member of the Committee shall serve at the pleasure of the Board and may be removed or replaced by the Board at any time, with or without cause. Resignation or removal of a director from the Board, for whatever reason, shall automatically constitute resignation or removal, as applicable, from this Committee. The Board may fill vacancies occurring, for whatever reason. All rights available to members of the Committee in their capacities as directors of the Company shall be fully applicable with respect to their service on the Committee or any subcommittee thereof. Unless the Board designates a chair, the members of the Committee may appoint a chair of the Committee (the “Committee Chair”).

Each of the members of the Committee shall meet the independence requirements under the rules of the Nasdaq Stock Market (“Nasdaq”) (except as otherwise permitted under such rules).

Authority & Responsibilities

The authority delegated to the Committee is set forth below. The purposes, responsibilities and other provisions specified in this Charter are intended to serve as guidelines and the Committee may act and establish policies and procedures that are consistent with these guidelines or are necessary or advisable, in its discretion, to carry out the intent of the Board in delegating such authority and to fulfill the responsibilities of the Committee hereunder. Nothing herein is intended to expand applicable standards of liability under Israeli or U.S. federal law for directors of a corporation.

The Committee is hereby charged by the Board with the authority and responsibility to:

1. Recommend to the Board for its approval criteria for board and committee membership, which shall include a description of any specific and minimum qualifications that the Committee believes must be met by a Committee-recommended nominee and a description of any specific qualities or skills that the Committee believes are necessary for one or more of the Company’s directors to possess, annually reassess the adequacy of such criteria, and submit any proposed changes to the Board for approval (the “Criteria”). The initial Criteria are set forth on Annex A hereto.

2. Identify and evaluate individuals, including individuals proposed by the Company’s shareholders, qualified to serve as members of the Board consistent with the Criteria and the qualification requirements set forth under the Israeli Companies Law 5759-1999, and the diversity requirements under the applicable Nasdaq rules. The Committee shall also have responsibility for reviewing, evaluating and considering the recommendation for nomination of incumbent directors for re-election to the Board, as well as monitoring the size of the Board. The Committee shall also recommend to the Board for selection, candidates to the Board to serve as nominees for director for the annual general meeting of shareholders. The Committee shall also have the power and authority to consider recommendations for Board nominees and proposals submitted by the Company’s shareholders, to recommend to the Board appropriate action on any such proposal or recommendation and to make any disclosures required by Nasdaq listing rules and applicable law in the course of exercising its authority. The Committee shall recommend nominees to the Board at an appropriate time: (a) prior to each annual general meeting of shareholders at which directors are to be elected or re-elected; and (b) after a vacancy arises on the Board or a director advises the Board of his or her intention to resign.
3. Establish procedures for annual performance evaluations of the members of the Board on an individual basis. The assessment shall include evaluation of the Board’s contribution as a whole and the Board’s effectiveness in serving the best interests of the Company and its shareholders, specific areas in which the Board and/or management believe contributions could be improved, and overall Board composition and makeup. The factors to be considered shall include whether the directors, both individually and collectively, can and do provide the integrity, experience, judgment, commitment, skills, diversity and expertise appropriate for the Company. In assessing the directors, both individually and collectively, the Committee may consider the current needs of the Board and the Company to maintain a balance of knowledge, experience, diversity and capability in various areas. The Committee shall also consider and assess the independence of directors, including whether a majority of the Board continue to be independent from management in both fact and appearance, as well as within the meaning prescribed by any stock exchange on which any of the Company’s securities are then listed. The results of these reviews shall be provided to the Board for further discussion as appropriate.
4. Review with the Board on an annual basis, the performance, independence, skills and characteristics of Board members on an individual basis and the skills and characteristics of the Board as a whole, in determining whether to recommend incumbent directors in the class subject to election for re-election.
5. Assess the effectiveness of any diversity policy the Board may determine to implement.
6. Recommend to the Board nominees for election as directors of the Company at the next annual or special meeting of the Company’s shareholders at which directors are to be elected.
7. Identify, evaluate and recommend to the Board individuals to fill any vacancies or newly created directorships that may occur between meetings of the Company’s shareholders at which directors are to be elected.
8. After due consideration of the interests, independence and experience of the individual directors and the independence and experience requirements set forth in the listing standards of any stock exchange on which the Company’s securities are listed, the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and applicable law, make recommendations to the entire board regarding the appointment of directors to serve as members of each committee and committee chair.

9. Develop and recommend to the Board corporate governance guidelines and policies for the Company satisfying the requirements of applicable law and any other applicable requirements.
10. Review developments relating to corporate governance issues and review and recommend to the Board changes in the Company's corporate governance guidelines and policies.
11. Cause to be prepared and recommend to the Board the adoption of a code of ethics and conduct, and from time to time review and assess the code of ethics and conduct, and recommend changes for approval by the Board.
12. Engage legal, accounting or other advisors to provide it with advice and information in connection with carrying out its responsibilities and shall have sole authority to approve any such advisor's fees and other retention terms, at the expense of the Company.
13. The Committee shall develop and periodically review with the Company's Chief Executive Officer the plans for succession for the Company's executive officers, as it sees fit, and make recommendations to the Board with respect to the selection of appropriate individuals to succeed to these positions. The Committee shall develop and periodically review with the Board the plans for succession for the Company's Chairperson of the Board, as it sees fit, and make recommendations to the Board with respect to the selection of appropriate individuals to succeed to this position.
14. Periodically review the processes and procedures used by the Company to provide information to the Board and its committees and make recommendations to the Board and management for improvement as appropriate. The Committee should consider, among other factors, the reporting channels through which the Board and its committees receive information and the level of access to outside advisors where necessary or appropriate, as well as the procedures for providing accurate, relevant and appropriately detailed information to the Board and its committees on a timely basis.
15. Periodically review and make recommendations to the Board regarding the Company's process for shareholder communications with the Board, and make such recommendations to the Board with respect thereto as the Committee deems appropriate.
16. Perform such other activities and functions as are required by law, applicable stock exchange rules or provisions in the Company's articles of association, or as are otherwise necessary and advisable, in its or the Board's discretion, to the efficient discharge of its duties hereunder.

In carrying out its responsibilities, the Committee shall be entitled to rely upon advice and information that it receives in its discussions and communications with management and such experts, advisors and professionals with whom the Committee may consult. The Committee shall have the authority to request that any officer or employee of the Company, the Company's outside legal counsel, the Company's independent auditor or any other professional retained by the Company to render advice to the Committee, attend a meeting of the Committee or meet with any members of or advisors to the Committee.

Subject to applicable law, the Committee may delegate its authority to subcommittees established from time to time by the Committee. Such subcommittees shall consist of one or more members of the Committee and shall report to the Committee.

Meetings

The Committee shall meet as often as it determines necessary in person or by teleconference (using telephone or other communications equipment) by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, but no less than once every fiscal year. The Committee Chair may call Committee meetings and, in consultation with other Committee members, shall determine the frequency and length of Committee meetings and shall set agendas for such meetings consistent with this Charter. In the absence of a Committee Chair, a majority of the members of the Committee may call a meeting of the Committee.

A meeting of the Committee may be convened by any means, including verbally (by mail, fax, email, etc.).

A majority of the total number of then-serving members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum. The approval by a majority of such quorum shall constitute a valid act of the Committee at a duly held Committee meeting. The Committee may also act by unanimous written consent of the then-serving members of the Committee.

Minutes & Reports

Minutes of each meeting of the Committee shall be prepared and distributed to each director of the Company and the General Counsel of the Company promptly after each meeting. The minutes of each meeting and any written consents of the Committee shall be placed in the Company's minute book. The Committee Chair shall report to the Board from time to time and whenever requested to do so by the Board.

Periodic Review

The Committee will periodically and in any event at least annually review its own performance and report on its conclusions in this regard to the Board. In connection with the annual review, the Committee shall also recommend to the Board any modifications to this Charter that the Committee deems necessary or appropriate. The format of the self-assessment shall be determined by the Committee.

Interpretation; Definitions

To the extent any of the provisions included herein is a description or summary of any applicable law or is intended to recite the provisions of any applicable law, then in the event of any inconsistency, contradiction or any other conflict between the provisions herein and the provisions of such applicable law, then the provisions of such applicable law shall prevail and supersede and shall be deemed to constitute an integral part of this Charter. In the event that any such provision of applicable law is amended to include any relief or exclusion, then, such relief and exclusions shall be deemed to constitute an integral part of this Charter, whether or not such conflict, inconsistency or contradiction arises.

Any references to any law, statute or regulation are to it as amended, supplemented or restated, from time to time (and, in the case of any law, to any successor provisions or reenactment or modification thereof being in force at the time); any reference to "law" shall include any supranational, national, federal, state, local, or foreign statute or law and all rules and regulations promulgated thereunder (including, any rules, regulations or forms prescribed by any governmental authority or securities exchange commission or authority); and any reference to "law" shall be read subject to the Company's articles of association, as amended from time to time.
